Noolaham Foundation

Noolaham Foundation is a non-profit, charitable organization (GA 2390) founded to provide enhanced access to information sources and foster knowledge-based development in Sri Lanka. It maintains an online digital library, facilitates information preservation programmes, provides financial assistance and technical guidance for digitization initiatives, and actively participates in awareness-raising campaigns. It also co-ordinates a range of fund-raising activities and collaborates with other organizations and individuals. The free Internet library [www.noolaham.org] and Archive [www.noolaham.media] maintained by the Foundation serves as a learning center incorporating local knowledge and enabling social interaction with a view to achieving constructive social outcomes. It functions as a repository for various institutions, and fulfills the information needs of students, researchers, historians, activists and the public. Volunteers of Noolaham Foundation participate in the activities of Noolaham globally and have established Noolaham chapters in their respective countries to achieve the mission of the Foundation.

Project Summary

The Noolaham Foundation is working on a number of projects to document and archive the writings of the Tamil-speaking populations of Sri Lanka. In that respect this school bears witness to a very long history of Sri Lanka. In 2000, due to the civil war many were displaced from their own places and Drieberg College was completely destroyed. In 2002 the College came back to its own premises. Since 2002 the college has gradually moved to achieve their targets. So Through this project it is very important to document the school and preserve this school's documents.

Goal

Documenting and preserving the overall history of the school by locating and documenting school related documents and identifying personalities associated with the school's history and recording their oral histories .
